

YOLA NASH
Award-winning Singer, Songwriter, TV/Radio Host and Producer

Yola Nash is often described as a European-American treasure for her media, art, and humanitarian achievements. As an internationally accomplished singer, she has performed for Pope John Paul II and debuted on the Top 40 charts in the USA. She performed and recorded with Grammy-winning artists including the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra legendary trumpeter Wynton Marsalis, trumpeter Marcus Printup and also violinist Marc O'Connor, world-renowned pianist Frank Kimbrough and more. Yola has also sung title songs for film productions and recorded and produced her debut album Another Girl with Norah Jones's engineer/ producer Pete DeBoar and Grammy-winning producer Bob Ebeling (Eminem, Kid Rock). Her debut album on Top Shelf Records and Nile Rodger's Sumthing Label was chosen by critics as a "Best New Music".

Yola's soon-to-be-released second studio album, Forbidden Love, is crossover pop-jazz with all original songs written by Yola and acclaimed composers Graham Kier and Dr. Octavio Vasquez. Her refreshing, sultry vocal style branches out into the realms of Pop, Jazz, Folk, and Latin flavors. On this album she collaborates with Edsel Gomez, the Grammy-winning Latin American jazz virtuoso and former music director of legendary jazz star Dee Dee Bridgewater.
